The Art of Viva Talbot

Monday 19 March 2012 – 6.00pm-7.00pm

Room H0.53, Centuria Building

'From Teesside Steel to Rural Yorkshire: The Art of Viva Talbot'
Public Talk by Dr Joan Heggie

This public talk by Dr Joan Heggie accompanies the exhibition of prints by Viva Talbot which is in the Constantine Gallery during the entire month of March 2012.

Viva Talbot (1900-1983) created hundreds of woodblock prints during her lifetime, including the 'Steel Making' series, but is not recognised within the reference books of 20th century British printmakers.

Refreshments will be available in the foyer of the Centuria building from 5.30pm. All welcome.
